On the generating function and growth of the positive singular braid monoid.

Vladimir Vershinin
Université Montpellier II, France

It will be explained in the talk that the generating function of the positive singular braid monoid is rational and the exact formula for such a monoid on three strands will be given. The growth rate in this case is calculated.

The talk is based on the joint work A. L. Anisimov and G. A. Kameneva.